

Circles features: Money Issuance

Money today is issued by central banks, and private banks who create and lend money for profit.

That made sense when issuing money required technology that only banks could provide, but today that's not the case.

Circles features: Money Issuance

In Circles, each person can issue their own currency at a rate of 1CRC (Circle coin) every hour.

You can issue Circles periodically in a web browser.

